Hello world!

Welcome to the Happ Family Blog.Â Â This is the first post.Â Hopefully, this blog will allow our many families to learn about our heritage and contribute to our learning.Â

Thanks to the years of hard work by Gerard Happ, our family tree going back to the 1700's is availableÂ here.

Hi, I am Elizabeth Murray Happ, Gerard's granddaughter, and I think this is very cool. It will be interesting to see what is on here in a few years. Thanks for putting this together.

My mom is Therese Anne Happ Selzer, daughter of Henry Happ who grew up on Happ Rd. in Northfield. This is a great reference and a great job!! Thanks. Is there someone we should email updates to? Thanks so much for all the hard work that went into this project.

Hi David & Therese Anne Happ Selzer,

I have been busy the last several months and have neglected to keep this up. I will be happy to update it for you (with Gerard's help!). I see David sent me a personal email a few days ago and with being so busy here with Christmas, I haven't even read my emails (rick@pamlico.org) of late. Feel free to email me any time with updates.

Rick Happ, son of George Mathias Happ & Elizabeth D. Happ (Platz)

Great Work on the family tree. Lots of great info. I have a question that hopefully someone can answer. In the first generation I noticed the surname (Schmetten) before the Happ name. Some of the children were then (Schmetten) instead of Happ. I would help me in my research to have this clarified. Barbara Ann Happ would be my Great Grandmother (x2)

Keith Nelson/Barb Ann Van Hyning/ Dorothy Levernier/ George Levernier/ Barbara Ann Happ and so on.....

Thanks to All for the hard work!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Ann,

Please email Gerard Happ for any updates or desired changes. Gerard keeps the master and then I will update the Web site.

Gerard's email address is ghapp40870@aol.com

Hi all,

I am Jean Happ, daughter of Paul Happ, Sr. and Judith Happ. This is very cool! Thank you so much for taking the time to gather this information and publish it for all of us to enjoy. It's great to hear from our wonderfully large extended family.

God bless.

My name is Adrienne Duckworth, daughter of Robert Francis Happ. This website is great—can't wait to tell my brother and sister about it. I notice that there is a young major league pitcher named James Anthony Happ who was just traded to the Astros from the Phillies. He is from Illinois, as so many of us are. Does anyone know if he is related to us?

Dear Adrienne,
My son Kevin contacted James's mother at one time and they could not come up with any connection.

Hello Gerard! I am Herman Joseph Happ's grand-daughter. You have done a wonderful job with all your research. I know how much work goes into this. I just wanted to say Hi and thank you for the information you have sent over the years.

With gratitude, Renee

Hello to everyone from one of the California Happs! My grandmother was daughter of Jacob Happ, born in Prussia, and came to California about 1860. Gerard has done such a great job. I'm still updating my California Happs. Probably will never finish!
